

I think it is Love

I don't know this feeling.

I know it is strong though.

I am going to say something really strange oh yea.

Here it goes

I think it is love. (x2)

I think it is love oh.

All these people around me feel it too.

I know you are feeling it too oh Woah.

Baby let's take it in.

So we can begin.

All the time I kept on talking to you.

All the times you answer real smoothly.

I think it is love.

I think it is love.

We are attracted like magnets.

We are igniting like matches.

I think it is love.

I think it is love.

So we are meant to be together.

Baby you smile at me like an angel.

Baby, you are precious to me like a bagel.

I think it is love.

I think it is love.

This is why I kept on fighting.

That you are the reason why I am singing.

I think it is love.

I think it is love.

That is why we can't be broken apart. Yeah...

I think it is love.
